Dear Mr. Bigsby:

This letter is in response to your February 9, 2011, request for approval to participate in a speaking engagement at an AIIM Conference pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to speak and PowerPoint presentation are approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of another's business;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C. Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)1)

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Re: "People Formula" Lesson Plans

Dear Mr. Dreeke,

This letter is in response to your request of June 21, 2011, for review of the above referenced lesson plans for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your lesson plans, as presented.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of release of information contained in your lesson plans with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your publication must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including any applicable limitations on compensation. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulations, with particular attention to the following:

- MAOP §§1-9, 1-16 and 20-6; 5 C.F.R. §§2635.802 and 803 (Participation in Non-Federal Entities and Outside Employment);
- MAOP §1-18; (Political Activities);

Your request to speak is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your period of employment with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;
- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive me

- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Symposium and Accompanying PowerPoint

Dear Mr. Kouril:

This letter is in response to your February 17, 2011, request for approval to participate in a speaking engagement at ODNI's Foreign Language Symposium pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to speak and your PowerPoint presentation are approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive me
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details.

Dear Mr. Malin,

This letter is in response to your request of August 31, 2011, for review of the above referenced book proposal for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your book proposal as presented.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of release of information contained in your book proposal with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your publication must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including any applicable limitations on compensation. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulations, with particular attention to the following:

- MAOP §§1-9, 1-16 and 20-6; 5 C.F.R. §§2635.802 and 803 (Participation in Non-Federal Entities and Outside Employment);
- MAOP §1-18; (Political Activities);
- MAOP §1-27; 5 C.F.R. §2635.805 (Service as an Expert Witness);
- MAOP §1-16.2; 5 C.F.R. §2635.807 (Teaching, Speaking and Writing); and,
- MAOP §20-28.3; (Administration and Requirements of PTAP).

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter and your work have been forwarded to that office for their information.

Dear Mr. Murphy,

This letter is in response to your request of March 15, 2011, for review of the above referenced compendium for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your compendium, as presented.

Note that this review is conducted per policy outlined in the FBI Prepublication Review Manual and does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in actual publication, sale or other use of the publication. Our findings have only considered the type and implications of release of information contained in your compendium with regards to Bureau publication and Security policy. Your publication must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch, including any applicable limitations on compensation. Compliance with prepublication review policy does not relieve you from the obligation to comply with other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies that may apply to your proposed or possible use of this submitted work. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work consider all applicable regulations, with particular attention to the following:

- MAOP §§1-9, 1-16 and 20-6; 5 C.F.R. §§2635.802 and 803 (Participation in Non-Federal Entities and Outside Employment);
- MAOP §1-18; (Political Activities);
- MAOP §1-27; 5 C.F.R. §2635.805 (Service as an Expert Witness);
- MAOP §1-16.2; 5 C.F.R. §2635.807 (Teaching, Speaking and Writing); and,
- MAOP §20-28.3; (Administration and Requirements of PTAP).

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter and your work have been forwarded to that office for their information.

Re: Interview for Gallaudet College Publication

Dear Ms. Nowalski:

This letter is in response to your February 11, 2011, request for approval to participate in an interview for a Gallaudet College publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to participate in the interview is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your employment with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;
- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive me

- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Re: Speaking Engagement at Yale Law School

Dear Mr. Perry:

This letter is in response to your January 28, 2011, request for approval to participate in a speaking engagement at Yale Law School, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive me
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)I)

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please contact [redacted] at (540) 868-1697.

Re: Magazine Interview Request

Dear Mr. Spielman,

This letter is in response to your request of September 19, 2011, for approval to participate in a magazine interview request pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to participate in the interview is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

You may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the interview are yours and not those of the FBI.

Re: Speaking Engagement and Powerpoint Slides for the American College of Sports Medicine

Dear Dr. Yoder;

This letter is in response to your March 9, 2011, request for approval to participate in a speaking engagement at the American College of Sports Medicine pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to speak and your Powerpoint slides are approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive me
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details. Also, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the presentation are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please contact at (540) 868-1697.
